

Annual YWCA Dinner Meeting Scheduled April 19

Fifth annual Torrance Young Women's Christian Association annual meeting will be held April 19 beginning with dinner at 7 p.m. at the YWCA, 2320 Carson St. Mrs. Clifford Easley is serving as general chairman of this annual event.

Mrs. Kenneth Clutter is handling tickets and reservations and Mrs. Steve Myzel will supervise the decorating. Mrs. Adam Krauser, chairman of Teenage Participation for the YWCA, will be in charge of the dinner and will be assisted by Mrs. Ralph Sprout. Also helping with the dinner will be members of the Teen-Age Committee, Mmes. William Boswell, Arthur Campbell, Paul Crossman, Edward Hansen and Lee Stamps. Mrs. Parke Montague is handling publicity for the annual dinner meeting.

Highlighting the evening's program will be a talk by Mrs. John Shidler, Rosemary DeCamp, television and motion picture personality. Miss De Camp and her husband, Judge John Shidler and four daughters are residents of the Hollywood Riviera.

Miss DeCamp, who recently visited Pakistan and other parts of Asia will speak on her trip emphasizing the contrast between the American and Asiatic women — their manner of dress, thinking, living and background.

A Teenage group from the guitar classes at the YWCA will entertain. The Tee Pee Trail Riders, a group of 14 girls from 10 to 18 years, will close the program with their interpretation of "The Lord's Prayer."

Purpose of this annual meeting is to hear reports on accomplishments during the past year and to present new goals. The elected slate of new members for the board of directors will be announced and presented by Mrs. C. B. Mitchell, president of the YWCA Board.

Life members, who will be especially honored at the meeting, are Mmes. Inez Allen, Clara Conner, W. A. Felker, N. F. Jamieson, Frank Pagac, Minnie Solomon, Miss Pauline Greer and Mr. Sam Levy.

Torrance YWCA (founded as a branch from 1948 to 1961) when it became an independent association. A voluntary membership organization, its purpose is to build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing ideals of personal and social living to which they are committed by their Christian faith.

Members take part in developing the life of the association through the democratic processes of shared responsibility and cooperative effort.

The YWCA is operating in more than 1600 communities and the 690 university and college campuses in the United States. Its program of health, education, recreation, housing and counseling anticipates the needs of women as they change with the times.

The public is invited to attend the event. For tickets or information Mrs. Kenneth Clutter of the YWCA may be called.

Especially For Women and Girls

Dolls in bouffant gowns will be table decorations for the fifth annual meeting of the Torrance YWCA on April 19 at the Y when life members will be honored, the past achievements of the local YWCA reported and new goals for the future set. Highlight of the evening's program will be a talk by Mrs. John Shidler (Rosemary DeCamp) on her recent trip to Pakistan. She will compare the status of Asiatic women with that of American women. Working on decorations for this important event are, from left, Mmes. Clifford Easley, general chairman; Steve Myzel, decorations chairman; N. F. Jamieson, life member of the YWCA, and Mrs. Shidler, guest speaker. (Press-Herald Photo)

Alpha Alums-Campfire Project

Plan Happy Easter for Hospitalized Children

South Bay Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae will join the Omnicinema Campfire Girls in staging a gala party for the children in the pediatric ward at Harbor General Hospital.

For the Alpha Delta Alumnae, the Easter party will be held Thursday, April 15, is a philanthropic project, organized and directed by Mrs. Grant Lacey.

Mrs. Edward Gingerich and Mrs. William Taber, both Alpha Delta Alumnae, are leaders of the Campfire group.

As a service project, the young girls have made "bunny hats" for the boys and "flowered hats" for the girls at the hospital. The children will also be given Easter baskets with hand-decorated eggs and candy. The tray favors, made by the girls, are bunny heads decorated with sequins and large chenille ears, made on pastel colored eggs, mounted on a long stick and placed in a large gum drop.

The Campfire girls will also provide entertainment during the party.

Members of the Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae Assn. who will assist with the party are Mmes. Charles Martz, Charles Penny, Jack Parks, Keith Moody, William Taber, Robert Donagetz, Arthur Clayton, Marvin Wood, John White, Grant Lacey and Lewis Roland.
